

Do you like to read?

Have you ever seen a book, a poster, a game, or an advertisement and thought, “I could make this better”?

Do you like to communicate your ideas?

If so,

APPLY FOR THE FREE SPIRIT TEEN ADVISORY COUNCIL

Free Spirit Publishing, the leading publisher of books that support young people’s social and emotional health, seeks young people, grades 6 and up, to join its teen advisory council. In order to keep our books and other products current and relevant, the advisory council provides valuable feedback on things like design, art, and content.

Council member responsibilities include the following:

- a 12-month commitment
- timely responses to our questions sent via email
- confidentiality
- completion of the Teen Advisory Council application, including parent or guardian permission

Council members must have access to the Internet and email and be able to receive and open PDFs.

Individuals selected for the council will receive an official certificate of membership, a $25 Free Spirit gift certificate, and a free book.

Members who complete their 12 months of service will receive an additional $25 Free Spirit gift certificate. Some members may be asked to serve again.

If you’re interested, please complete and submit an application. Applications are attached to this flyer or available at our website, www.freespirit.com. Application review is ongoing. Applicants chosen for the council will be contacted.

Contact Lauren Ernt, ernt@freespirit.com, if you have questions.
